

RAMAIAH DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSORSHIP

Inviting Distinguished Professors of Global Repute

Ramaiah University of Applied Sciences invites applications from internationally renowned Professors with proven excellence and expertise. Desirable term requires visit to Bangalore for a period of one to three weeks. Distinguished Visiting Professors are invited in all the areas of Engineering, Health and Basic Sciences, Art and Design as well as Management covering the contemporary topics and future trends.

Desirable Areas of Expertise:

- All the Areas of Engineering and Technology
- Applied and Computational Mathematics
- Probability, Statistics and Stochastic Processes
- Physics
- Chemistry
- Dental Sciences
- Pharmacy

Desirable Areas of Expertise:

- Life and Allied Health Sciences
- Management, Commerce and Finance
- Hospitality Management
- Art and Design, Performing Art and Film Making
- Social Sciences
- Economics
- Law

During the tenure of the appointment, the Distinguished Visiting Professor is expected to offer short term courses and interact with faculty as well as students to undertake contemporary Research. Preference will be given for members of NAE/Prestigious Professional Fellows of International Standing.

We Offer

A globally competitive remuneration which includes Airfare, Local Accommodation, Expense and an Honorarium

To Apply

Please send your Initial Application along with CV, Research and Teaching statement, or any query to:
distinguished.professor@msruas.ac.in Ramaiah University of Applied Sciences is established as a Private University under an Act passed by the Government of Karnataka, India. Envisioned as a modern as well as innovation-intensive University, RUAS is engaged in interacting with Industry, Business, Communities and Government organizations. RUAS, a Comprehensive University and Unitary in nature, has pioneered the concept of outcome-based education in India. The University conducts contemporary research through its 21 Research Centres in inter and multi-disciplinary on critical thrust areas of National Importance. RUAS also offers Research Programmes like Ph.D., M.Phil. and M.S. (By Research) which is systematically structured and unique in nature.